Ursuline Student Leadership Conference: Angela's Piazza
Cincinnati, Ohio June 24 – 28 2010

Congratulations on being chosen as a school leader for the Ursuline Student Leadership Conference hosted by Ursuline Educational Services, Ursuline Academy and St. Ursula Academy in Cincinnati, Ohio. Please read the policies and guidelines stated below. Your signature at the bottom indicates your understanding of these policies and guidelines. Your cooperation is essential to the success of this Conference. Please sign at the bottom and obtain the signature of your parent(s) or guardian(s). Your school's staff/faculty contact person will collect completed forms and bring them to the Conference. You are welcome to make additional copies of this form for yourself and your parent(s) or guardian(s).

We pray for your safe journey to Cincinnati on June 24 and look forward to meeting you!
Sr. Patricia Homan, OSU & Sr. Pat Meisner, OSU, Co-Directors of Ursuline Educational Services.

Emergencies: Contact Sr. Patricia Homan 513.379.3832 or Sr. Pat Meisner 513.600.1639

Illegal/Dangerous Substances: This conference will enforce a zero tolerance policy regarding illegal/dangerous substances. If students are found with alcohol, tobacco, prescription medications not prescribed for them by a physician, or any other illegal/dangerous substance in their possession, their parents/guardians will be notified, and they will be sent home immediately at the expense of their parents/guardians. Chaperones will assist with the enforcement of this policy throughout the Conference.

Residence Dormitory: Students must be in their dorm rooms at the announced designated times. Chaperones will assist by taking turns enforcing this regulation.

Property Damage: Students may not remove property from Xavier University dormitories where they will be housed. Students and their families will be responsible to Xavier University for any damage to university property.

Violations: Students violating regulations or participating in any illegal activities will meet with Sr. Patricia Homan, Co-Director of Ursuline Educational Services and will be sent home following notification of their parent/guardian. Students sent home for any reason will be financially responsible for all costs incurred in this process.
